Enjoy a narrated tour passing some of the most beautiful and famed areas of the city of Nassau. Provide by Carnival Your next stop is at the historic 1789 Buena Vista Estate, home of the John Watlings Distillery for a self-guided tour and rum tasting. View Bahamian hand crafted rums and spirits being produced.

Upon departing the distillery, your tour then takes you along Bay St to the Sir Sidney Poitier Bridge over to Paradise Island formally known as Hog Island, home of the well renowned Atlantis Resort & Casino for a brief photo stop. Along the way see the famed Nassau Straw Market, the Pompey Museum, Rawson Square and Parliament Square where the House of Assembly, Senate Chamber, Supreme Courts and a statue of Queen Victoria is located. Following a brief photo stop, re-boarding your bus at the Atlantis, the tour continues passing the Queens staircase (65 steps) built between 1793 and 1794 to provide direct route from the Fort into the city of Nassau and ends near the Pirates of Nassau Museum. Enjoy shopping along Bay Street before walking back to your ship.

Option C: 2) Excursion by Gwen's Elite Travel - We will see and participate in the historic and cultural heart of The Bahamas. The tour will include shopping, the beach, a sight-seeing tour of Nassau and Paradise Island. We will arrange an educational and cultural visit to the "Junkanoo Shack". Along the way see the famed Nassau Straw Market, the Pompey Museum, Rawson Square and Parliament Square where the House of Assembly, Senate Chamber, Supreme Courts and a statue of Queen Victoria is located and the Queens Staircase. We will make a stop at renowned Atlantis for a quick photo. Go shopping at the market, and along Bay Street.

Optional: Lunch will be at the famous "Twin Brothers Restaurant" with the locals. Lunch will range from $12 and up, depending upon your choice. They have fresh conch, red snapper, shrimp, burgers and more. I know you can eat free on the ship but let's experience the traditional cooking of the Bahamians.

The cost of this tour is only $35 and will last about 4 to 5 hours.
