

The 'REAL' NASSAU (and more)

Please join Gwen's Elite Travel as we take you through the 'real' city of Nassau, Bahamas

Date: May 6, 2016 (Disembarkation time and meeting place to be announced)

Junkanoo Festival Parade

Junkanoo Museum

HIGHLIGHTS:

Junkanoo Museum: Let's go back in time when blacks communicated via drum beats and cow bells. This eventually became a massive street party dating back to slavery. This celebration takes place on Dec. 31st and in July each year. We will witness how these magnificent costumes are made and the sounds of Junkanoo.

Fish Fry

The Fish Fry: The Fish Fry: In the Bahamas' Out Islands, the tradition of Fish Fry defines a gathering of small stands & shacks where cooks prepare authentic homemade Bahamian cuisine- from fried chicken and stew' fish to conch salad, conch chowder, cracked conch to fish that is delivered daily.

(Note: Lunch is NOT included in the tour cost. Estimated cost: $15-$20 each)

Other Stops: We will travel through the 'real' Nassau, not just the tourist areas to see the real neighborhoods of our brother and sisters, the churches where they worship, the Rum Cake Factory, a liquor store that may be cheaper than the ship, the Atlantis, and many other 'surprises' as time permits. We will arrive back to the downtown area in time for you to buy those 'special' things you forgot before returning to the ship.

COST: By Check/M.O- $60 per person Payment must ARRIVE by April 20th

PAYPAL: By Credit Card via PayPal- $62 (https://getinc.biz/?page\_id=1107)
